Case No. 3:10cr119 (3)

JUDGE WALTER H. RICE

DECISION AND ENTRY FINDING DEFENDANT IN VIOLATION OF SUPERVISED RELEASE, REVOKING SAME AND IMPOSING SENTENCE,
WITH A REIMPOSED PERIOD OF SUPERVISED RELEASE TO FOLLOW;
RIGHT OF APPEAL EXPLAINED AND UNDERSTOOD; TERMINATION
ENTRY

On May 30, 2013, the Defendant, having previously been found in violation of his supervised release which began August 1, 2011, appeared in open Court for final disposition.

Pursuant to the record made on the aforesaid May 30, 2013, the Defendant was found in violation of supervision and the Court revoked same, remanding the Defendant to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States for a period of time served (70 days served on revocation), with a 33 month period of reimposed supervised release, minus the aforesaid 70 days, to be served. As conditions of the reimposed period of supervised release, the Defendant is to comply with all undischarged conditions of supervision that remain outstanding, save and excepting the particulars of the Supervision Plan of December 1, 2012, which has been superseded by one entered May 30, 2013. As an additional condition of supervision, the Defendant is to follow each and every one of the twelve items set forth in the Supervision Plan of May 30, 2013.

Following the above, the Defendant was orally explained his right of appeal, and he indicated an understanding of same.

The captioned supervised release violation proceeding is hereby ordered terminated upon the docket records of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Western Division at Dayton.
